

CHING HE HUANG

BIOGRAPHY

Ching-He Huang is the face of Chinese cooking on British TV. She is a foodie entrepreneur and ambassador to Chinese cooking in Britain.

Born in Taiwan raised in South Africa and London, Ching moved to Britain when she was 11. Through her cooking she has remained close to her Chinese culture and heritage and continues to learn and share it with great passion.

A self-taught and passionate cook, Ching launched her own food company, Fuge Ltd, fresh from graduating from university.

Ching's dynamic approach to modern Chinese food led to a television presence, her popular shows, "Ching's Kitchen" (Good Food Channel), "Chinese Food Made Easy" (BBC2), and "Ching's Chinese Food in Minutes" (Channel Five) have all been licensed and shown on various networks throughout the World. Ching has appeared in numerous Food and TV programmes and continues to champion Chinese cooking through her various media appearances. Ching's latest show, "Easy Chinese: San Francisco" is her latest TV project. This 13 part series is due to be air on September 10th 2011.

Ching is the author of three cookbooks, the bestselling Ching's Chinese Food in Minutes, Chinese Food Made Easy and China Modern. Ching's latest book, Ching's Fast Food, is published by Harper Collins and will be published on the 28th April 2011. The US edition titled, "Everyday Easy Chinese" will be out on October 4th 2011.

Ching has teamed up with Typhoon to create a range of homeware products that will be available in all good department stores in the UK in the autumn.

Ching is a Buddhist and lives in London.
